

Typical Structure Locations

Location of line along half section maximizes avoidance of homes and farm buildings located along typical section line roads.

Structure design and location provides free movement of existing pivot system.

Nebraska Public Power District
Always there when you need us